

1981 kucr s.o.s. rap

The 1981 KUCR S.O.S. rap refers to the "Hieroglyphics Rap," an early West Coast hip-hop track created by radio personalities Herb Partlow and Kin Harris. 🔗

Key details

- Artists: Herb Partlow (known as "Superb Herb") and Kin Harris (known as "The UnDisco Kidd").
- Radio station: KUCR 88.1 FM, located in Riverside, California.
- Context: The song was created for the "Soul on Sunday" (S.O.S.) broadcast on KUCR.
- About the song: "Hieroglyphics Rap" was a popular track on the KUCR station that celebrated the S.O.S. Crew and the city of Riverside. It is considered an influential early West Coast rap song.
- Legacy: The track and the radio show influenced later hip-hop artists from the Inland Empire area, such as Brother Marquis of 2 Live Crew and Rodney-O of Rodney-O & Joe Cooley. 🔗